TWO DEAD AND SIXTEEN INJURED

In Collision at Raleigh Yesterday.

Seaboard Passenger Train Crashes Into Southern Excursion Train As Latter Was Standing Under Shed at Union Station—Passenger Came In Too Fast To Prevent Collision—Nominee of Republicans In Fifth Being Discussed.

Raleigh, Aug. 13.—Two deaths have resulted from the rear end collision between a Southern excursion train and Seaboard Air Line northbound passenger train No. 84 early this morning in the union station here. Will Jordan, colored, died with a short while after being crushed between the passenger engine and the rear of the excursion train. And Hugh Perry, who was also badly mangled, lived only three hours.

The train, laden with negro moonlight excursionists just returned from Durham, had scarcely more than stopped under the train shed when the Seaboard passenger train bore down upon it causing the two deaths and the painful injury of sixteen other negroes. The engineer of the excursion train, C. F. Vaden was badly injured. For about two weeks the Seaboard Air Line has been using the Southern track into the shed, known as track No. 2. The condition was that all trains entering on this track should have the speed reduced to such a point that a stop could be made almost instantly.

It is generally believed that 84 came in with a speed which prevented its stopping in time to avoid the collision. Some place the speed as high as 30 miles an hour, but the general opinion seems to be that it was running 18 or 20, which made it impossible to stop when the excursion was seen occupying the track. A railroad man who had been investigating the cause of the wreck said it was due, in his opinion, to the Seaboard train coming in at a speed too fast to avoid the wreck.

The Seaboard officials are investigating the affair, but it could not be learned where they fix the responsibility.

There is considerable talk here about the probable Republican nominee in the Fifth district to make the race against Major Sherman for Congress. Not a few stick to the conviction that Congressman and State Chairman Morehead will finally be nominated in spite of his present unwillingness. They contend that he owes it to the party to make the race as most certain to save the district. On the other hand there are those well versed in politics who advance the idea that when the convention assembles August 20, if Morehead is still unwilling to take the nomination it will go to Major J. E. Alexander or A. E. Holton. It is pointed out that either of these would make a strong campaign.

While the Republican County convention for a year to nominate the county ticket is not to be convened until September 1, there is considerable discussion of possible legislative ticket, especially. It looks now like Col. J. C. L. Harris, a life-long Republican, who is personally very popular, will be set up to make the race against Dr. E. W. Sikes. Democratic nominee for the State Senate, Col. Harris declares his willingness to make the race provided the Republicans will get into the campaign with the determination to win.

An order was issued today from the headquarters of the North Carolina National Guard for a new division of Naval Reserves to be mustered in at Hertford Monday night. This will be done by Col. R. F. Leinster, of Raleigh. It is to be known as the Sixth division of the North Carolina Brigade. C. W. Morgan has been leading in the formation of the division and will be commissioned as lieutenant in command.

The Merchants' Association.

The Greensboro Merchants' Association will hold their joint business and social meeting at Lindley Park next Friday evening. The meeting scheduled for some time ago was called off on account of unfavorable weather and preparations were begun for a more elaborate program than ever. One of the features of the meeting Friday night will be a big watermelon slicing, presided over by Mr. John J. Phoenix.

WORKING ON COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

Chamber of Commerce Will Submit Proposed Law to Citizens of City.

A special committee appointed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce to investigate the commission form of government is hard at work and in a short while will submit to the directors a draft of a proposed law for the City of Greensboro. The directors will then revise the draft and submit it to the Chamber of Commerce and that body will pass on it. Then a mass meeting of the citizens will be held and the revised draft will be submitted to the people and such amendments as are deemed advisable will be made. The amended draft will be carried before the legislature and enacted into a law.

While the committee working on the law has only scarcely begun its work it is understood that the idea is to do away entirely with the Board of Aldermen, the commissioners to be a legislative as well as an executive body. The referendum and recall system will be made a part of the proposed law, thus enabling 25 per cent. of the voters of the city to call an election and elect a new commissioner should one of those in office fail to give satisfaction. Barring the above changes the draft will be in a measure identical to the one submitted to the citizens year before last by the former board of aldermen.

When the Chamber of Commerce has passed on the matter then copies of the proposed law will be printed and distributed to all the citizens of the city so that every one can study the whole matter and be prepared to suggest any changes that he thinks should be made. Every citizen will be given ample opportunity to express his sentiments on the question and the result should be satisfactory to everybody.

HOME-COMING WEEK IN WAKE

Will be Held During State Fair.

Committees At Work To Make Social Feature of Fair a Success—Big Street Sprinkler Operated by Street Car Company Now In Use In Capital City—State Farmers' Convention At A. & M. College August 30-Sept. 1.

Raleigh, Aug. 13.—A big four-thousand gallon tank street sprinkler mounted on regular street car truck has just been purchased by the Raleigh aldermen and was used for the first time today with perfect success. It is to be used in sprinkling all the streets traversed by the street car system. The city purchased the sprinkler and the street car company obligates itself to operate it.

Activities for the success of the State Fair and Raleigh Home-Coming October 17 to 22 are quickening materially now. The big new agricultural and horticultural building made of concrete is going up rapidly and applications for space are pouring in from all parts of the State. Secretary Pogue being determined to make room for all desirable exhibits. This big new building is in addition to the space that has been available in the past and it is expected that there will be room for all desirable corners. In connection with the preliminaries for the home-coming social feature of the State Fair, the central committee of the "Home-Coming Week," met in the mayor's office yesterday and heard the report of the finance committee and appointed the various committees.

Mr. Joseph G. Brown was chosen chairman of the welcoming committee, which will consist of 200 members to be named later. Col. Pogue stated that he had already taken up the question of reduced rates for out-of-state visitors and had been assured that a low rate would be granted.

The question of finances was taken up. It was decided that besides what would be done by the agricultural society and local organizations, that a request would be made for the city to appropriate $500 to aid in carrying out the plans. This branch of the work will be in the hands of Col. Fred A. Olds, who will devote his time from now on towards making the "Home-Coming" a great success.

There will be held in Raleigh at the A. & M. College, August 30, to Sept. 1, the State Farmers' convention that each year marks the close of the series of farmers' institutes held throughout the State. The last of the local institutes were held in various parts of the State today, there having been four parties out in this work for the past four weeks or longer. The attendance at all the institutes has been quite large and there is every assurance that there will be many farmers here from every part of the state for the convention at the college for which some of the most noted experts and best speakers have been engaged.

Trial Monday Morning.

The preliminary hearing of Callie Nettles, the negro woman charged with killing her infant child, will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock before Justice of the Peace D. H. Collins. It will be remembered the body of an infant was found in the woods near Revolution about three weeks ago and the coroner's jury laid the crime at the feet of the Nettles woman. She admits that the child was hers, but contends that its death was accidental. However, no good reason has been given for attempting to conceal its death by wrapping it in a piece of cloth and hiding it in the woods. Messrs. Stern and Siler represent the defendant, while County Attorney J. N. Wilson will probably represent the state at the preliminary hearing.

Superior Court Begins Monday.

The special August term of Guilford Superior court for the trial of civil cases begins Monday morning, Judge C. C. Lyon presiding. The term is for one week, but the regular August term will convene Monday week and court will be in session for two weeks. There are eighty-eight cases on the calendar, but none of the cases are of special interest. The case of J. D. Helms vs. C. E. Holton is set for Tuesday and if taken up will consume the remainder of the week. This case has been before a jury three times, this making the fourth.

MUSICIANS WILL PLAY LAST TUNE

On The Local Diamond This Season.

Here With Champs Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Locals Getting In Fine Form and Will Work To Get Out of Cellar—Won From Charlotte Yesterday by Easy Score—Greenville Took Four Straights From Spartanburg.

The Musicians, Greensboro's rivals for the cellar position, are here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for their last games of the season on the local diamond. The Spartans are nearly fifty points above the Champs and are working hard to forge ahead of Winston. But they lost four straights to Greenville this week and accordingly took a slide down the column, while Winston climbed.

Greensboro has just closed the most successful week of the entire season, taking four out of six games. On one or two occasions the Champs have taken four out of seven, but never four out of six. The team is showing up well and with good work can manage to pull out of the cellar before the curtain falls.

The local management hopes to have a large attendance during the remainder of the season. There are just ten games to be played here and the presence of the fans will greatly encourage the team. The last three days this week Anderson will be here and two of the games should be gobbled up by Hicks and his followers. Then the team goes to Spartanburg and Anderson for three games each, returning here for two games with Greenville and Charlotte. The two final games of the season will be played in Winston.

Yesterday's Game.

Tony Walters did the twirling for Greensboro yesterday and but four of the Hornets could solve his puzzles, only one man crossing the rubber. The Charlotte twirler gave up only six hits, but the support given him was ragged and six circuits of the diamond were made by the Champs.

Yesterday's Results.

Greensboro 6, Charlotte 1.
Greenville 5, Spartanburg 0.
Anderson 4, Winston 3.

Where They Play.

Spartanburg at Greensboro.
Charlotte at Anderson.
Winston at Greenville.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Greenville	56	30	.651
Charlotte	48	42	.533
Anderson	49	43	.533
Winston	43	48	.472
Spartanburg	39	51	.433
Greensboro	36	57	.385

Proximity Won.

Yesterday afternoon at Cone Park Proximity won from North Greensboro by the score of 13 to 2. The contest came to a close at the end of the fifth inning, but the Backwoodsman had received enough at the hands of Hobbs, Proxy's twirler. For some time these sturdy boys had been nagging for a game with Proximity, their large string of victories having made them feel equal to the task of taking Proxy's scalp. But they more than met their match and suffered defeat. However, the boys are game and say they want to play another game with their successful opponents. Batteries: Hobbs and Honeycutt, Ferguson and Ferguson.

A FINE CROP

Greensboro Man Tells of Large Yield of Wheat and Oats on Smith Place in Randolph.

Mr. A. W. Vickory returned yesterday from a trip to Randolph county. While in Randolph he visited the farm owned by Capt. Burns and Mr. Arthur Ross and of which Mr. Vickory's brother, Mr. L. W. Vickory, is manager. On this farm the threshing of wheat had just been finished, 725 bushels of wheat and 325 bushels of oats having been raised on the farm, which is known as the Smith place. The yield was an exceptionally good one, and the crop of wheat and oats in Randolph is generally good, Mr. Vickory states.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF MARRIAGE.

Miss Saza Peck and Prof. Robert North Wilson To Wed In September.

At a delightful informal reception yesterday afternoon at her home on Douglas street Mrs. Harry Thornton announced the approaching marriage of her niece, Miss Saza Hendrick Peck, to Prof. Robert North Wilson, of Durham, the wedding to take place about the middle of September. An even dozen of Miss Peck's most intimate friends were present and the occasion was the social event of the week.

Miss Peck wore pink lingerie over pink silk.

The Thornton home had been beautifully decorated, pink and green being the color scheme in the parlor and white and green in the reception hall. The motif was carried out in the refreshments, pink cream in the shape of hearts, cake and mints being served. Punch was served by Misses Cora Peck and Annie Coffin.

Each guest registered in the bride's book a wish for the bride, following which it was presented to the bride-to-be by little Elizabeth Thornton, daughter of the hostess. Before the guests registered Mrs. Thornton read a toast to the bride-to-be.

Just after the refreshments had been served each guest was presented with a souvenir, a handpainted cover, on which was the likeness of Miss Peck and an individual line to each guest from Miss Peck in her own handwriting. These lines were then read and added considerably to the social features of the afternoon.

MR. H. M. COBLE HURT.

Victim of Painful If Not Serious Accident Yesterday Afternoon.

While driving out Asheboro street yesterday afternoon Mr. H. M. Coble met a painful if not serious accident. His horse became frightened at a passing car and the animal began prancing about. He attempted to steer the animal between the car and a pole but the buggy struck the pole and the force caused it to skid around and strike the car, which hurled the buggy over, throwing Mr. Coble out. He was caught under the wreckage and painfully if not seriously injured. Medical assistance was summoned and Dr. J. T. Reeves, who lives nearby, was soon on the scene.

Mr. Coble was carried to the Brady house and last night was resting well. The extent of his injuries have not yet been determined, but his legs and side were painfully bruised to say the least.

Mr. Coble lives near the city and was going home when the accident occurred. The buggy was badly torn up by the accident, but the horse escaped injury.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle, of the sanitary committee, made a thorough report, which was heard with interest by the directors.

Inspected Southern Traction Properties.

A party of prominent civil engineers passed through here last night returning to New York from a trip of inspection of Southern traction properties. In the party was William Barclay Parsons, chief engineer of the Interborough Company of New York City and formerly assistant chief engineer of the Panama Canal. The party had planned to come on 46, arriving at 6:30, and stay over until the hour of departure of No. 38, but failed to catch their train.

Asheboro Street Wins.

Yesterday morning the Asheboro street team defeated Eugene street by the score of seven to six. The score stood six and six in the ninth and seven extra innings were played to break the tie. Batteries: Asheboro street, Blair, Alexander and Bain; Eugene street, Harry and Weatherly.

THE LIBRARY AND MISSIONS

New Aids to Study Now Available.

Home and Foreign Missionary Journals

Donated by Church Societies—Epworth League of West Market Street Methodist Church Makes Most Welcome Donation—Management of Library Welcomes Such Gifts.

The following regarding the Carnegie Library is furnished by the management for publication:

The management of the Greensboro Public Library is always anxious that this institution should render all possible service to all lines of workers in the community, and among the many students whom it is privileged to serve there are often church workers from many classes and societies in the various denominations of the city.

The library aids for such study (except in its history) are limited in number and a gift of ten home and foreign missionary journals from eight church societies was greatly appreciated in the early part of the year. "China's Millions," organ of the China Inland Mission, from the well known missionary, Miss Maud Hancock, and the "Soul Winner," organ of the interdenominational mission work, in our own mountains, have both been welcome gifts.

During the past week the Mission Study class of the Epworth League in the West Market Street Methodist church has voluntarily contributed for free reference use in the library 60 exceedingly valuable works on missions, with a promise of more to follow.

These books are the best and brightest of their kind and every one interested is cordially invited to use and enjoy them. Our friends of this class belong to "The great army of encouragers who make the wheels of this world go round," and as we all know that Greensboro people like to work together for the common good it is highly probable that other churches and classes and individuals will be glad to take part in a plan which means such practical and timely aid to our home library.

MOTERING IN FRANCE

You May Drive As Fast As You Please On Open Highways.

W. F. Bradley, in Harper's Weekly. The American automobilist will have to deal with two classes of natives; one official, the other civil. The former will provide him with his driving and car registration licenses, the other will minister to his personal comfort, or otherwise, in hotels and garages.

If the visitor is wise he will take advantage to the full of all facilities offered by the various automobile touring associations in order to simplify formalities at the customs and to obtain driving and car licenses with the least delay. So well is this managed that it is generally easier for the foreign visitor to obtain the necessary official papers than it is for the native. The documents are two: the one a rose-colored card, bearing a photograph of the driver of the car, various details as to his age, place of birth, etc., and type of car he is entitled to drive; the other is the car registration card, a gray ticket, carrying the registration number of the car, its horsepower, manufacturer's number and other information necessary for ready identification. These two documents must always be ready. They may not be needed on the entire trip, but when they are wanted they are wanted badly. They are good for the whole of France, and for any length of time, a point that is worth remembering if the trip is to be repeated with the same car and the same driver.

Encounters on the road with the arm of the law should be made as courteous as possible on the part of the automobilist. There will be no "hold-up" for running the car at the full limit over an open highway free from other traffic. Even in most of the cities no arbitrary speed limit is imposed, the general instructions being that the driving must be "sane." As to the degree of sanity the gendarme alone is the judge. As instances, it is not sane driving in Paris to allow the motor to smoke at the exhaust, to use a siren or other loud-sounding instrument, or to drive at night with the gas headlights burning. If an accident should occur, stop immediately; it is a punishable offence to seek to escape from the scene of an accident, however slight your connection with it.

MELONS FOR MRS. CARNEGIE.

Six a Week Shipped From Here to Skibo Castle, Scotland.

New York Press. Mrs. Andrew Carnegie is a Southerner and she likes watermelons. That is why three large striped specimens of that luscious fruit yesterday were packed in a crate by a fruit dealer at Broadway and Twenty-eighth street.

"Skibo Castle, Scotland," was the label tacked on the crate, which was soon on its way to a transatlantic steamship, where it was put in an ice-filled chamber in the hold.

The storekeeper said he sends Mrs. Carnegie, wife of the steel man, six watermelons a week, three at a time. Every week since the season opened she has been getting regular consignments of melons, all of which have reached Skibo in good condition. There they are served at the Carnegie table, and native Scotch thereabouts get an occasional taste of one of America's champion products.

Our Next Great Problem.

Socialism is to be the next great problem for the nation to solve, declared President Taft in an address at the unveiling of a tablet at Jackson, Mich., in commemoration of the birth of the Republican party at that place July 6, 1854. "There are those," he said, "who charge to the institution of private property the corporate abuses, the unequal distribution of property, the poverty of some and undue wealth of others and, therefore, say, 'We will have none of it, and we must have a new rule of distribution.' That for want of a better name, we shall call socialism." Just the day before, when addressing the students of Ohio Northern University, he had said: "Speaking generally of the issues which are likely to be presented to you in the future, I think the issue of most importance would be the question of the preservation of our institution of private property, or its destruction and the substitution of a certain kind of co-operative joint enjoyment of everything, which is the ideal socialism." In the view of our Chief Executive, the "destruction of private property" is of the very essence of socialism.—Leslie's Weekly.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments

I am a woman. I know woman's sufferings. I have found the cure. I will mail, free of any charge, my book, "WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER," with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—yes, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or White Discharge, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Urinary or Urinary Tract, or Gonorrhea; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weakness, dizziness, and bladder troubles which are caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the treatment a complete trial; and if you wish to continue, it will cost you only about 15 cents a week or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book, "WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER," with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says, "You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy. It cures all old or young. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectively cures Leucorrhoea, Green Discharge and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in young Ladies. Plumpness and health always result from its use.

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again.

T. R. FOR GOVERNOR.

That's Now Said to Be the Plan of New York State Leaders—Will "Rush" Him In.

New York Press.

Theodore Roosevelt for Governor by acclamation and a quick adjournment before he can refuse the nomination is the program that the Republican bosses in New York, have up their sleeve for the State convention, which will meet in Saratoga on September 27. This, they have decided, is the answer to the riddle, "What Republican can carry New York this fall?" It solves the question of the election of weak candidates for Congress in a score of districts throughout the State, assures a united party in the campaign, and, most important consideration of all, from the viewpoint of the bosses, promises to maintain the machine's control over the State patronage now in its hands.

Colonel Roosevelt's consent to the program is lacking. The bosses have not asked for it and won't ask for it. They know that they could not get it. The bosses and other Republicans who have given thought to the subject know that Colonel Roosevelt has no desire for the nomination which it is their purpose to force upon him. Just the same the plan is to go ahead and nominate him, trusting to luck for the rest. The men who have framed up the program pretend to believe that distasteful as its action may be to him Colonel Roosevelt will not balk the will of the convention unanimously expressed.

It is all of two weeks now, it was learned yesterday, since the bosses secretly agreed among themselves that the thing to do was to make Roosevelt the candidate, with or without his consent. A suggestion to put the proposition up to him was negative on the ground that it would be safer to let things take their course and spring the Roosevelt by acclamation plan at the last moment. In conformity with this decision the bosses have mingled with other Republicans who have visited Colonel Roosevelt day by day to suggest the names of various candidates for the Governorship nomination and it is probable that this canvassing of the qualification of candidates will be continued right up to the opening of the convention.

THE SINS OF TODAY.

Professor Ross Says They Are More Dangerous Because Unfamiliar.

Current Literature.

"Ethical expert" is the term which best fits Prof. Edward Alsworth Ross, of the University of Wisconsin. For several years now he has been making it his special work to uncover and define what he feels are the really dangerous sins of today.

These sins, he points out, are often unrecognized, and that is the very reason why his work is necessary. "I take it," he says, "that the thickening scandals of our time signify not that men are worse but that they are assailed by unfamiliar temptations which they have not learned to resist, and which you and I—that is to say, the public—have not learned to help them resist."

The old kinds of sins, Professor Ross intimates in his latest book, were for the most part personal and direct, while the new kinds are rather social and "spread out over a large surface."

Burglary and murder are examples of the ancient sin with which we are all familiar. Graft and bad sanitation are types of the newer sin which we do not understand so well. "You can as surely kill a man with a rotten tenement house as with an axe," Jacob Rice once said. "Yes," rejoins Professor Ross, "and many a man will yield a deadly tenement house against his fellow-men who would recoil in horror from slaying with an axe."

BEDS TO THE BACK YARD.

A Kansas City Family Has a Tent-Cot Sleeping Arrangement.

Kansas City Star.

The mountain wouldn't come to Mahomet, but R. E. McDonnell came pretty near getting a regular field-and-stream into his backyard at 1104 Chestnut street. At any rate, Mr. McDonnell says, all the open-air delights of tent sleeping, coupled with the comforts of home, are combined in the tent-cot arrangement recently installed for himself, Mrs. McDonnell and Robert, Jr., 5 years old.

"And when it rains too hard we just hike for the back door," Mr. McDonnell adds.

The three cots are really little individual tents on legs, with door flaps, and windows.

"In the absence of a sleeping porch they answer the purpose nicely," Mr. McDonnell says. "We expect to use them until freezing weather. They enable us to keep cool, sleep out of doors and enjoy tent life without going away to some lake."

The Asheville Gazette-News certainly did take it to heart.

the referee system eliminated or a new referee been appointed?

The physician-in-chief of a hospital for the insane in Baltimore has just issued an annual report on the institution. In it he mentions as follows some of the things that have a tendency to produce mental aberration, "loneliness and monotony of the farmers' family, the exhaustive struggle for life in the factory and the sweat shops; the strenuous task imposed upon tender childhood by our school curriculum, with its long hours of confinement, difficult studies and frequent examinations, and the teacher as well, who must exact this toil from youthful vitality at a sacrifice of her own nerve force; the far-reaching effect of alcohol and the terrible secret disease that, once entering the human body, is ever advancing toward insanity." These "predisposing" conditions may all be remedied and will be in time. Particularly should attention be given to the assertion that too great a burden on the young is embraced in the school curriculum. From what we have seen, we believe that the assertion of the Baltimore alienist is borne out by the facts. The children are hurried rather fast along the pathway of knowledge nowadays. That mental disorders are in part thus occasioned may well be believed. Certainly if the present system of education is charged by reputable and skilled men with helping to fill the madhouses, it is time to stop and inquire into the grounds for such a contention.

Mr. J. A. Canady, of Melver, N. C., has written the Reidsville Review concerning a specific instance in which it appears that Congressman Morehead abused the franking privilege. Congressman Morehead, it is gathered from Mr. Canady's letter, sent Mr. Canady a batch of literature bearing on political matters. The literature was returned accompanied by a personal letter from Mr. Canady. Congressman Morehead then replied with the following letter:

Spray, N. C., Aug. 1, 1910.
Mr. J. A. Canady, Melver.
Dear Mr. Canady:—
Acknowledging receipt of your favor, in returning the documents sent you with your comments, I am taking pleasure in sending you some others. I do this because I believe you were only somewhat in anger and with the hope that you may see fit to give the others a little more favorable consideration. I believe that you are a man who is willing to look at both sides of a question and that you do not desire to do any injustice to any person or any party. Accordingly, I take pleasure in again asking that you give a little time to those which I enclosed under separate cover, and I also appeal to what I know to be a charitable nature.

With regards and best wishes,
Very truly yours,
JNO. M. MOREHEAD.

The foregoing letter, Mr. Canady writes the Review, was franked in one of the Government's envelopes marked "Official Business—Free." It is possible that the stamp was duly affixed to this letter and came off. If it was not, it appears to us that in the instance mentioned, Mr. Morehead clearly abused the franking privilege. The letter was purely of a proselyting nature and by no stretch of the imagination could it be called a letter on "Official Business."

It is always interesting, and sometimes enlightening, to go away from home to get the news. Thus we find in the Baltimore Sun the late Republican State convention viewed perhaps from an angle different from that from which it was viewed by most people here in North Carolina. That convention was generally thought of as the climax of a successful fight of one man to overthrow another in the control of the Republican party and we are persuaded that in the long run it will be demonstrated that that was about all it amounted to. But the Baltimore paper sees in the convention and the circumstances which preceded and controlled it an effort of President Taft to break the solid South Says the Sun:

Mr. Taft long ago recognized that one great handicap to the success of his party in the South was the odious "referee system," by which some politician was given the privilege of dispensing the Federal patronage without regard to the wishes of the community in which Federal officers were to serve. This has resulted in building up State political machines composed almost entirely of officeholders whose sole object was to secure and retain office. No strong, virile party can be built up on any such basis, and so Mr. Taft, then Secretary of War, stated in his notable speech made at Greensboro, N. C., several years ago. The change in the party management in North Carolina, brought about apparently with the support of Mr. Taft, is the first active step toward the elimination of the "referees" and a change in the party system. Congressman John M. Morehead in his campaign for chairman first thoroughly organized the voters, and when he made it plain that he had the support of President Taft the officeholders, most of whom owed their appointments to his opponent, Committeeman Carl Duncan, trooped into the Morehead camp. Mr. Morehead had the active support of former United States Senator Marion Butler, who organized the campaigns of 1894 and 1896, when the Republicans and Populists carried the State. Though elected Senator as a Populist, Mr. Butler long ago became a Republican, and is now high in the party councils. Mr. Morehead is a man of wealth and close to the manufacturing interests, which, though nominally Democrats, lean toward the Republican party on account of the high tariff. Mr. Butler is still a power among the farmers and is expected to bring the old Populist element into line. Under the educational test thousands of negroes are now eligible to the ballot, and these will be urged to register and vote. The new managers hope to unite these elements with the old-line Republican vote, and if they succeed will present a formidable opposition to the Democrats, for the first time in a decade.

The manufacturing interests in North Carolina do not lean toward the Republican party as much as the Sun might think. Perhaps those scorching letters which mill men have been writing Congressman Morehead denouncing the Taft brand of prosperity have not come under the Sunpaper's observation. And the Sun is very much mistaken, we believe, in assuming that there is any appreciable part of the "old Populist element" that hasn't already been brought into line with the Republican party. Butler has been in the Republican party quite a long time now and those Populists who pinned their faith to him followed him into the Republican camp without delay. We doubt also if the Republicans will endeavor to make very much of the negro vote. They boast loudly about the elimination of the negro question from politics and claim that they have a lily white party—circumstances which are not calculated to make the negroes enthusiastic over their Republicanism. Not only so, but the Republicans are carrying a big load in the shape of Marion Butler, so that whatever of independent vote may have gone their way hitherto is likely to go some other way this time. To be sure, Mr. Taft wants to capture the Good Old North State for his party but with the party worse divided than in many years the President has no special reason to feel hopeful of seeing his hopes realized this year.

The wife of the coal dealer was reading the department store advertisement. "Hot weather suits," she began. "It doesn't suit me," interrupted the coal man.

A QUICK CHANGE.

The Sweet Taffy That Came After the Cold Roast.

"Say, Jen," said Katie, the brunette, with white side combs in her hair. "I see Mamie has bleached her hair again. Ain't it terrible?"

"Yes, perfectly awful!" replied Jennie. "She asked me if I would do it if I were she, and I said 'yes.' Don't she look perfectly dreadful—and it's getting streaked already. You could tell in a minute it was bleached, the roots are so dark."

"Sure, I noticed that!" responded Katie. "And, say, did you see the rag of a dress she had on yesterday? And it's fit—gracious! Looked perfectly dreadful, didn't it?"

"Perfectly dreadful," echoed Jennie. "Well, she wanted a pattern, and I gave her the one of that dark blue silk I had three years ago," said Katie.

"You did?"

"Yes, I did."

"Oh?"

"And the hat she was wearing," continued Katie. "Did you get your optics on that?"

"Yes."

"Perfect sight, wasn't it?"

"Where did she get it?"

"Oh, down at the Moody's. I helped her pick it out," was Katie's reply.

"Why, why, here comes Mamie now," she continued. "Hello, Mamie, you dear, sweet thing! How nice you look—too darling for anything!"

"Yes, indeed," added Jennie. "You do look perfectly charming. Say, let's all go and get some soda."

And the three friends walked away together.—New York Times.

DESPERADO CAPTURED

J. P. Walker, Murderer of Sheriff of Brunswick, Arrested in Florida.

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 13.—J. P. Walker, the white desperado who murdered Sheriff Jackson Standland in Brunswick county in December 1908, chief figure in the man hunt of weeks duration when he broke jail later, was captured yesterday at Cold Springs, Fla., by W. M. Fryer, detective. A photograph was sent some days ago and Walker was identified by it. Sheriff J. J. Knox, of Brunswick, left this afternoon for Cold Springs to bring Walker back for trial. Walker is a desperate character. He was wanted in December, 1908, for several burglaries. Sheriff Standland went to his home to arrest him and Walker fired inflicting a mortal wound. Standland died the following day. Walker was paired with a boy named Dudley, an accomplice, in January 1909. Walker knocked the jailer sensitized and escaped with the boy. A man chase of seven days followed Walker and the boy through the swamps in midwinter. Walker was fired at several times but finally escaped. Hardships made the boy surrender.

He is now serving 19 months for jail breaking.

Walker lived in the swamps seven days and underwent great suffering. He was a former deserter from the United States army, at Fort Caswell. His murder of Standland was atrocious. He will be tried in Brunswick county. The case after him excited state wide attention at the time. Aggregate private, county and state rewards for Walker's capture amounted to $2,000.

It was an apple that caused Adam's downfall, but the modern man is more apt to succumb to a peach.

The reason some people can't make both ends meet is simply because they spread themselves too much.

STANLEY MAY RECOVER

While His Condition Is Serious Physicians State That He Has Slight Chance.

The following is from yesterday's Danville Bee:

"The condition of Ted Stanley, the young white man, of Guilford county, N. C., who was shot Thursday night in a race riot on a mixed excursion train returning from Norfolk to Greensboro, N. C., is still serious. Stanley is at the General Hospital here, where he was taken yesterday morning upon his arrival in the city. Owing to his grave condition, Dr. W. C. Day, the attending physician, allows no one outside of the hospital attendants to visit him. Stanley was shot in his right breast, the bullet lodging in his back. No operation has yet been performed for the bullet. Dr. Day stated this afternoon that the injured man stood a fair chance of recovery unless traumatic pneumonia develops.

"Five negroes are now being held in jail here in connection with the trouble on the train. Four of the negroes were arrested when the train passed through Danville yesterday morning, and Buck Graves was arrested last night in Reidsville in response to instructions from Chief of Police R. E. Morris. Special Agent Searlet, of the Southern Railway, arrived in Danville yesterday to investigate the shooting affray and disorder on the train and to aid the authorities in prosecuting the guilty parties.

"Five warrants in all have been issued. Buck Graves and Sam Macklin will be taken back to Norfolk county, the scene of the shooting, where they will be tried for felonious assault on Ted Stanley. In case, however, the injured man dies, the trial will take place here.

"George Price will also be taken to Norfolk county to face trial for felonious assault on Robert Jones. Howard Hollis and John McCoy will be taken to Alton, Va., to be tried for displacing and destroying the air hose on one of the coaches to the excursion train."

Stanley is well known in Greensboro where he was employed as a painter. He is said to be a clever young man with a mild disposition. It is the consensus of opinion that the shot was not aimed at the victim.

More Night Riding

Glasgow, Ky., Aug. 13.—News reached here today that "night riders" are alleged to have visited the home of Mrs. Mary Buchanan, of Gresham, in Green county, last night, and demolishing a mill owned by her, cutting belts, breaking pumps and in various ways damaging the property.

Later in the night the party, it is said, made an assault upon the home, knocking in doors and breaking windows. Mrs. Buchanan and little son scared them away by firing on them, but the family was badly frightened.

Kentucky Families Fight

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 13.—Two persons were probably fatally hurt and several others severely injured in a free for all fight between the McNabb and Rose families and several friends in Wolfe county, according to reports which reached here today. Roy McNabb was shot and probably fatally wounded while Rose Rose was so badly beaten that his recovery is doubtful. The fight occurred on the public road where the belligerents who had an old grudge, had met.

May Nominate Grissom

Winston Sentinel: A local Republican who stands high in the councils of his party in state affairs made the prediction today that if Congressman John M. Morehead insists on some one else making the congressional race when the convention reconvenes in Greensboro next Saturday, Mr. Gilliam Grissom, for several years Mr. Morehead's secretary and right-hand man, will be given the nomination.

Planning a Band Concert

The members of the Union Textile Band, of the mill villages, are planning to have a band contest one day during the approaching fair. It is hoped to have at least ten or twelve bands compete for prizes that will be offered. If the plans mature the band contest will be one of the most interesting features of the fair.

Good Scheme

"It's a shame," commented the friend of the restaurant proprietor. "What's a shame?" asked the restaurant proprietor. "Why, that you have to give that pretty waitress all the tough steaks for the patrons at her tables." "Oh, I pay her extra for that. You see, she is so pretty not one man would kick if the steaks were so tough they pulled his teeth out."—Chicago News.

STAUNTON'S CAVE-IN

Unless Postoffice Lot Is Involved Little Further Sensation Is Expected.

Staunton Special to Richmond Times-Dispatch.

The cave-in, which occurred here yesterday in the heart of the city, continues to alarm residents.

A third hole formed last night in the rear yard of Prof. G. L. Wilson, into which a rear frame addition to his building of brick tumbled and disappeared. This hole was extended today toward the south, on a line with Lewis Creek, on the premises of J. E. Todd, the rear foundation of his house going in. The cracks extended into the next lot of Mrs. Mary Glenn, bringing the cracks in the earth to within 150 feet of the government building, containing the postoffice and United States marshal's office.

The public school building on Baldwin street, diagonally across from where the first sink formed on yesterday, shows very little change. Slight cracks that were then formed have extended higher up, but the building stands firm, and there is now thought to be little likelihood of disaster to this building, the course of the break being away from it, following the arched creek line south, and about fifty feet distant from it.

The territory affected lies between Lewis street and Central avenue, on ground that years ago was a pond and marsh, and is made earth.

A stream of water can be seen at the bottom of the hole, opposite the fire house, and the plumb line, eighty-four feet long, failed to reach bottom, and showed twenty-four feet of water, the stream running southward in the direction of the other holes. Street cars are not allowed to pass on Lewis street between Frederick and Baldwin, and passengers walk across from one car to another. Curious crowds have gazed all day and into the night at the holes, being kept from near approach by ropes stretched across.

Opinions still differ as to the cause, the authorities holding that a powerful suction pump in a well recently bored 800 feet deep on the Smith, Fuel and Ice Company lot across the block drew the water from soil underneath the surface crust, leaving voids, which were filled by the caving earth. Unless the postoffice lot becomes involved, little further sensation is expected.

A COUPLE FROM VIRGINIA

MARRIED HERE LAST NIGHT

Mr. Reynolds and Miss Skinnell of Bedford City—A Runaway Match.

Mr. George D. Reynolds and Miss Alvah B. Skinnell, both of Bedford City, Va., were united in marriage last night at 8:30 o'clock by Justice of the Peace J. Grasty Fowler, the ceremony taking place at the home of Mr. Fowler's mother, Mrs. A. F. Fowler, 106 South Green street.

The couple came in on No. 43 at 7:15 o'clock. Deputy Register of Deeds Roy H. Jones was found and from him the license to wed was obtained, the couple repairing without delay to Mrs. Fowler's residence where "Squire Fowler quickly spoke the words that made them one. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds spent last night at the McAdoo and will leave today returning to Bedford City to face the parental wrath for the marriage was a runaway match.

THE LATEST FAD IN FASHION.

Women Flock to Physical Instructor to Reduce Weight.

New York Times.
One of the very latest fads of the young matrons of the smart set who are inclined to embonpoint is to take lessons from a professional trainer in exercises that will reduce their rounded weight to the "proper angles," as one cynical husband has expressed it, and those that are now trying it abroad—for it is to Sandow in London that they go—claim great results in a very short time.

The method is thorough and they find the course interesting. Of course the rumor always is that there are more patients than the head of the establishment can treat, which isn't pleasant to think of after a race across the sea for this especial object; but after a day or two of worry over what the fates apparently decreed some one is sure to relent in favor of the American supplicant and a cure is announced as the cause of the vacancy.

A surgeon is in attendance at the first examination and listens to heart and lungs, so that no over exercise will be prescribed. Age, weight and chest expansion and a number of other measurements are recorded against the name, and the result of the treatment at various stages goes down with the date daily. One woman lost five pounds at her first attempt at bag punching and other interesting diversions, and claimed to feel like a "kitten" when rubbed down and dismissed for the day.

Each patient takes a full course and pledges herself to do this when entering her name, for otherwise "cures" could not be accomplished. There also is a list of exercises—changing monthly in some detail, so that no muscles are over developed—to be followed for a whole year, and a diet is prescribed, to be adhered to as faithfully as possible.

As yet no opportunities of this kind are to be found in America, but it will not be long until some social leader, on her return from London, starts a private class, with all the features of the one that she has benefited by and then schools will be sure to open up in each city where the over plump may go to reduce to sylphlike proportions, and where retired boxers will once more reap golden harvests.

A Thing of Beauty.

Delights of the Seaside Beautifully Pictured by the Atlantic Hotel in an elegant Announcement.

As lovely an announcement as any ever issued by a hotel in the South is that just published by the Atlantic Hotel, of Morehead City, in a beautiful circular of twelve pages, attractive and inviting, a thing of real art. The season opens June first. All persons desiring a copy of the announcement may secure it by addressing a card to Frank P. Morton, manager, Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, N. C. It is splendidly illustrated and the pleasures it recites and pictures make the wish to go to the seashore irresistible.

It is stated, the Summer season of 1910, will mark a new era in the history of the Atlantic Hotel—a number of improvements have been made, new granite and board walks laid, new piazza built, and tennis courts added. The ball room which is of enormous proportions, has been beautifully decorated, and many other features added for the comfort of its guests.

Morehead City is justly famed for the excellent fishing in the matchless waters that are found within the confines of this endless expanse of pleasure grounds, where myriads of the "Finny tribe" disport themselves.

The Atlantic Hotel is preparing to entertain this season the largest crowd in its history.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once becomes infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains no atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send for a sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

One dollar bottles guaranteed.

FRENCH PRAISE GAYNOR

Writers In Paris Papers Believe He Will Be Democratic Candidate For President.

Paris Correspondence New York Times. Not since President McKinley's assassination has anything happened in the United States which has excited as much sympathy on the part of the French people as the shooting of Mayor Gaynor. The majority of the newspapers have not yet commented on it editorially, but the tone of all their sketches of Mr. Gaynor's career, which are appended to the accounts of the shooting, prove the sincerity of their appreciation of him as a public man.

Ladovic Napdeau, in the Journal, says: "The reforms accomplished by Mr. Gaynor in all the municipal departments under his control have brought him such a degree of admiration and gratitude on the part of the public that he was already regarded as the new star in American politics, whose brilliance was increasing day by day. He is the coming man of the morrow."

"Did I say the morrow? Already all eyes are turned toward this little, grave-faced man who has been able to reduce the most arrogant corruptionists to a state of humble submission. The name of Gaynor is one to remember. In fact, we shall probably hear it very often as the time approaches for the next Presidential election in America. No doubt the immense popularity of Theodore Roosevelt is at its apogee, and there is nothing to compare with it, but Mr. Gaynor's fame is constantly growing."

"Originally a Democrat, he is no longer a man of party, but a representative of honesty. Upright as a rod of iron, he disarms his opponents by the strength of his loyalty, and without recourse to the artifices of eloquence proves to them that he is right because he is right."

The Matin is one of the newspapers of France which have immediately recognized the increased hold upon the affection of the public that Mr. Gaynor's present peril will give him if he survives his wound. It predicts that in that case he will be the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. The Journal des Debates makes the same prediction.

The Liberté reviews Mr. Gaynor's career in most eulogistic terms. "One must know," it says, "to what an extent corruption reigns in American municipal affairs in general in order to understand how great was Mayor Gaynor's audacity in decapitating the official creatures of Tammany Hall."

It hopes Mr. Gaynor will recover and make, after all, his projected visit to Europe and study municipal institutions on this side of the water.

From Sickness to "Excellent Health." So says Mrs. Chas. Lyon, Peoria, Ill. "I found in your Foley Kidney Pills a prompt and speedy cure for backache and kidney trouble which bothered me for many months. I am now enjoying excellent health which I owe to Foley Kidney Pills."—Holton Drug Co.

Wigwag—"They say B Jones abuses his second wife terribly." Henpeckle—"Yes, he doesn't deserve to have lost his first one."

To keep your health sound; to avoid the ills of advancing years; to conserve your physical forces for a ripe and healthful old age, guard your kidneys by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. Holton Drug Co.

ON CUTTING GRASS.

The Old Notion That it Was Beneficial Exercise Proved False.

New York Times. It is to be feared that Mr. Babson, the Massachusetts statistician whose opinions on the state of the country we printed Sunday, will find that he made himself unpopular by the whole great tribe of suburbanites by scolding them for hiring men to cut the grass in their yards instead of pushing the lawn mower themselves.

As a matter of fact, not a few of them still indulge in that violent form of exercise, but they would all be glad to avoid it if they could, and we can not ourselves see why a man who has done a good day's work in the city as is the wont of the suburbanite, should further tire himself and spoil his clothes by performing a task of this particular kind. In most cases it is at least possible that the time it would take can be devoted more profitably as well as more pleasantly to rest or amusement.

We never had much faith or patience for the theory that the fatigue caused by one kind of labor can be dissipated by turning to another. To whatever extent a man is tired he is tired all over, and—well, cutting the grass, even with the lightest running mower ever advertised, is a very lifelike imitation of work—real, hard work. The weariness it causes may or may not be balanced by the 50 cents or $1 saved, but Mr. Babson might have admitted that just a few suburbanites are not wickedly extravagant though they prefer playing with the dog or sitting on the piazza to using up their precious hours of leisure at home as he advises.

Life on Panama Canal

has had one frightful drawback—malaria trouble—that has brought suffering and death to thousands. The germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility. But Electric Bitters never fails to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "Three bottles completely cured me of a very severe attack of malaria," writes Wm. A. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had good health ever since." Cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles, and prevent Typhoid. 50c. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Women and Weight.

New York Morning Telegraph. Women fear fatness far more than men do. They will do without food and sleep and wear themselves out exercising to keep their weight down.

The right way and the only way to lessen the weight and keep it down is to go without eating. Food is the only thing in the world that makes fat; if you go without it is it not reasonable to suppose that you will lose weight? Drugs, exercise—all these things may help to reduce, but the only way to keep light is to stop eating so much. People of sense know this without telling. But there are many who make a mystery of fatness, whereas there is nothing to it. A man or woman is fat because he or she eats too much.

The sale at Star today of town lots auctioned off by R. L. England, of Greensboro, was a grand success in every respect. Mr. England is undoubtedly the best land seller I have ever seen at an auction sale. Our sale was 147 lots and the cash taken in was a little over $13,000. John M.
